Your Key to Election Day!

If you are an American citizen over the age of 18, you enjoy a hard-won right to vote. Through one simple – but powerful act – you help determine the future of America. But before you vote, you must be registered.

1. It's simple: You can't vote if you don't register to vote.
Your state needs to know you're a valid, legal citizen. Be sure you've taken this important step.
2. It's easy:
You can register online. Concerned Women for America's (CWA) website links to the form you need at www.cwfa.org. Your state Board of Election's website will have that information, also. You can register to vote at nearly any government office, including your local motor vehicle department, county courthouse, public library and more.
3. Time is limited!
Many states close voter registration 30 days before an election. Check you state's election calendar and registration deadlines. Act now!

Register to Vote - Why You Need to Act Now!

One vote -- yours -- could make all the difference:

- In 1800, the Electoral College cast a tie vote for president. So, the House of Representatives had to choose. They elected Thomas Jefferson on the 36th ballot. One vote could have changed history.
- In 1868, the House voted to impeach President Andrew Johnson. The Senate failed by one vote to convict. He stayed in office.
- In June 2006, the U.S. Senate failed by a single vote to pass a constitutional amendment to ban the burning of the American flag.
- In February 2008, the parliament of the Czech Republic needed 140 votes to elect the nation's president. They missed it by just one vote and had to try again.
- In July 2008, the French National Assembly voted for President Nicolas Sarkozy's constitutional revisions by just one extra vote, 539 with 538 required.
