Speaker: Jon Bierman

Bierman will be sharing with us the aftermath of the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA) as well as the deteriorating security situation in Israel.

JCPOA, or most commonly known as the “Iran deal”, is an international agreement on the nuclear program of Iran reached in July of last year between Iran and the United Nations Security Council. The measure of the JCPOA’s success was supposed to be the extent to which Iranian behavior moderated. The JCPOA’s failure, if measured by that standard, is already manifest. Bierman will review the events surrounding Iran in the wake of the implementation of the “Iran Deal”.

The last several months have seen almost daily terrorist attacks in Israel. Bierman will provide examples of and explain the Palestinian incitement that leads to these attacks and explore the extreme bias in U.S. and European mainstream media coverage of this ongoing threat.

Bierman has traveled to the region repeatedly throughout the last four decades. He has witnessed the region’s evolution into the world’s roughest neighborhood. He has practiced law as a commercial litigator in St. Louis for the last 15 years. Bierman’s degree in history from Washington University focused on the history of the Middle East.
