

Restoring Righteousness

Sponsored by Concerned Women for America of Central California

Saturday, November 17, 2012

Capitol Foursquare Church
2418 O Street
Sacramento, CA 95816

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

(Registration/refreshments from 12:30 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.)

Join us in protecting the family by restoring Judeo-Christian values in America.

Get Ready to be engaged on some of the most critical issues of our day.

Learn how radical Islam and Sharia law is more than a religion; it is a military strategy and a political and socio-economic system. Find out how to recognize the Islamicizing of America, California and your community.

Be Engaged as we discuss what to expect in 2013 in the White House as well as the state and national legislatures.

Enjoy inspirational speakers!

Concerned Women for America is here to equip you to make an impact on a multitude of issues through prayer and action. Won't you join us?! Men, women and teens are all welcome and encouraged to attend!

- Cost: Free
- RSVPs are helpful as we plan yet not necessary.

Outstanding Speakers!

Khadijeh Baratzadeh is the pastor of an Iranian/Persian church in Sacramento. She founded Shofar Prayer Ministry which brings local churches together to fight the spirit of Islam nationally and worldwide.

Patricia Thompson is Concerned Women for America's Central California Area Director.
She has a contagious passion for both individuals and the church to make a difference through both prayer and action.

Silvia Thomas is a missionary to many nations and hosts a program on 89.7 KARM Family Friendly Radio. She is the Hispanic Liaison on the CWA of Central California Steering Committee.

Danielle Cullum is the Administrative and Program Director for Capitol Resource Institute which provides advocacy for family values in the California state capitol. She is the new local CWA Prayer/Action Chapter Leader.

Concerned Women for America (CWA) is the nation's largest public policy women's organization with a rich history of helping our members across the country bring Biblical principles into all levels of public policy. There's a cultural battle raging across this country, and CWA is on the frontlines protecting those values through prayer and action.
