Women and Sharia Law

A panel discussion with experts in Sharia Law

Thursday, September 15, 2011

Capitol Visitor Center, DC
1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

The implications of Sharia Law affect foreign policy, human rights and perhaps even our own system of law in the future. Come join us and our panel as we expose underlying tenets of Sharia Law and how it threatens our nation and your family. Be part of an in-depth discussion between leading experts on this issue and watch interviews of the personal experiences of local Coptic Orthodox Christians from St. Mark's Coptic Orthodox Church. Go to ConcernedWomen.org for more information.

Concerned Women for America is the nation's largest public policy women's organization with a rich 30-year history of helping our members across the country bring Biblical principles into all levels of public policy. There's a cultural battle raging across this country and CWA is on the frontline protecting those values through prayer and action.

The Vision of Concerned Women for America is for women and like-minded men, from all walks of life, to come together and restore the family to its traditional purpose and thereby allow each member of the family to realize their God-given potential and be more responsible citizens.

The Mission of Concerned Women for America is to protect and promote Biblical values among all citizens—first through prayer, then education, and finally by influencing our society—thereby reversing the decline in moral values in our nation.
