

Voter Fraud?

What can ordinary citizens do to prevent it in 2012?

Join us for an enlightening and educational time with

Anita MonCrief

“ACORN Whistle Blower”

In 2008 she came forward as the confidential source of the New York Times and then publicly to expose the damage that ACORN has done to the impoverished and marginalized communities, as well as its rampant voter fraud, and gained notoriety as the ACORN whistle blower.

Thursday, October 25, 2012

8:00 p.m.

Drake University

Meredith Hall Room 235

Des Moines, IA 50311

Join Concerned Women for America of Iowa for some refreshments and hear Anita MonCrief tell about what she saw inside ACORN. Anita is a writer, blogger, activist and mom.

MonCrief is committed to the cause of voter integrity.

No RSVP necessary. Women, man and teens are all welcome and encouraged to attend.

In addition Iowa Secretary of State Matt Schultz will be sharing on voter fraud specific to Iowa.

Presented by She Votes 2012, a get out the vote project of Concerned Women for America of Iowa.
shevotesiowa@gmail.com ♦ 515-259-0087 ♦ ia.cwfa.org ♦ shevote2012.org ♦ ConcernedWomen.org