

Today's Politics: What's a Christian to do?

Like it or not politics affects the lives of believers and unbelievers alike. As much as we may want to divorce ourselves from the politics of the day, we, as believers, must stand for righteousness.

Saturday, October 20, 2012

2:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Miller Auditorium
Western Michigan University
2200 Auditorium Drive
Kalamazoo, MI 49006

With the national debt now at 16 trillion, big government out of control, the family being redefined, our religious rights under attack and abortion taking the lives of 4,000 children a day, what is our responsibility before God toward this nation? What's a Christian to do?

Do not miss out on this exciting free event with nationally known speakers. Let us rally together with fellow Christians as we explore God's answers to today's threats to our faith and freedoms.

Invite a friend! Women, men, junior high through university students, legislators and policy makers are all encouraged to attend.

*Please RSVP by October 18 if at all possible.
Walk-ins are welcome.*

Outstanding Speakers:

Speaker, Commentator,
Chief Executive Officer and
President of Concerned
Women for America
Penny Nance

Speaker, Author,
Commentator,
Founder of Eagle Forum
Phyllis Schlafly

University Professor,
Legal & Political
Commentator,
Author and Board Member of Salt and Light Global
Ellis Washington, JD

This event is sponsored by She Votes 2012, a get out the vote project of Concerned Women for America. "Like" us on facebook - She Votes 2012 in MI.

Abigail Nobel, BSN, RN-BC ★ Michigan Field Director ★ CWAmich@gmail.com ★ (616) 443-2836 ★ SheVotes2012.org