

Concerned Women for America of North Carolina is calling all those in Mecklenburg and adjacent counties to gather for

Prayer & Action

in Charlotte

Second Monday of every month

8:45 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

First Baptist Church, Uptown

301 S. Davidson Street, Room #210
Charlotte, NC 28202

“If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

II Chronicles 7:14 (NKJ)

Join with us as we focus on issues concerning the American family and our nation.

“I know the Lord has ordained CWA for an important function during these troubled times.
We are awakening thousands of Christians to their responsibilities as citizens in this country.”

Beverly LaHaye, the founder of Concerned Women for America, the nation’s largest public policy women’s organization in the country
