

Dear CWA Friends,

She Votes 2012, www.shevotes2012.org, is a project of CWA. CWA knows that when conservatives vote their values, they elect men and women who are committed to the application of America's founding principles. Our "Get Out the Vote Project" involves grassroots education, training and activism that can help raise awareness of the issues important to conservative women and men.

Did you know that only half of the professing Christians in America are registered to vote? And of those, only half of those actually vote? We must make every effort to change that statistic in this very crucial election November 6.

After declaring that it is a sin not to vote, the late D. James Kennedy explained, Jesus Christ said this: "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's." That means that we are to render unto the state whatever it is our responsibility as citizens of that state to render. And certainly, in this nation that includes, at the very minimum, that we should get out and vote.

The CWA She Votes 2012 Bus is on the Road

The CWA She Votes bus will be on the road again next week starting August 13 in Montana and North Dakota. If you have friends or relatives in those states, please send them the itinerary and urge them to attend one of these events. CWA's CEO and President Penny Nance will be speaking at each stop along the way. Click here for the schedule.

CWA CEO and President Penny Nance Comments on Mitt Romney Naming Paul Ryan as VP Running Mate

Washington, DC - CEO and President of Concerned Women for America Penny Nance has issued the following statement in light of Gov. Mitt Romney naming Congressman Paul Ryan as his vice presidential running mate:

"Paul Ryan is an energetic and solid social conservative. He has tirelessly supported the unborn and voted in favor of a federal marriage amendment. In addition, he showed great courage and willingness to make the hard decisions needed to clean our fiscal house by actually putting pen to paper and advancing a plan.

"Others were simply content to sit on the sidelines and make political points, Congressman Ryan was determined to be a grown up and work for a real solution. The nation's mothers demand that our leaders in Washington stop spending money that belongs to our children and grandchildren and to live within the nation's means much like we all do at the kitchen table every month.

Director and Senior Fellow of the Beverly LaHaye Institute Janice Crouse, Ph.D, has issued the following statement:

"Paul Ryan is a two-fer for Mitt Romney. He is, of course, a solid fiscal conservative; he is also a strong social conservative. He is a pro-life, pro-marriage, pro-family candidate who votes the right way, says the right things, and lives out his faith authentically."
