Save Mother's Day: Reject the UN Treaty on Women

[CWA President, Wendy Wright]

This is Wendy Wright, President of Concerned Women for America.

Crazy.

That's what you'll say when you hear how the United Nations plans to promote equal rights for women by legalizing prostitution, by making abortion easy to access, and by banning Mother's Day.

That's right, banning Mother's Day!

In the 1970's, radical feminists drafted a U.N. treaty called The Convention on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women.

Nicknamed CEDAW, it's the Equal Rights Amendment on steroids.

This U.N. treaty is fundamentally flawed because it denies that God made us male and female.

It belittles motherhood, and would undermine American values and laws.

If you want to save Mother's Day and our National Sovereignty, join CWA in telling U.S. Senators to reject CEDAW.
