

2004 GENERAL ELECTION – Vote November 2

Colorado – United States Senate

Senator Ben Nighthorse Campbell (R) announced his retirement after 2 terms

Republican

Democrat

Pete Coors

Age: 57 (9/20/1946)

Political experience: None

Background: Bachelor's in Industrial Engineering, Cornell University, MBA, University of Denver, 1970; Brewing Company Executive —chairman of Coors Brewing Co. and Adolph Coors Co.; Catholic

Web: www.petecoorsforsenate.com

Campaign Office: 303-470-7001

E-mail: info@petecoorsforsenate.com

Ken Salazar

Age: 49 (3/2/1955)

Political experience: Serving his 2nd term as Attorney General of Colorado, 1998-Present

Background: Political science degree from Colorado College, 1977, J.D., Univ. of Michigan, 1981; Attorney, Farmer, and Small Business Owner; Catholic

Web: www.salazarforcolorado.com (campaign) and www.ago.state.co.us (official)

Campaign Office: 303-300-2004

E-mail: frontdesk@salazarforcolorado.com

"I have a fundamental belief in the sanctity of human life. I am opposed to abortion." (campaign website)	Abortion	"I believe the decision to have an abortion should be between a woman and her God. I will defend that Constitutional right." (campaign website)
Opposed to all forms, as well as stem cell research involving the destruction of human embryos	Cloning	No statement available
"In Colorado, we have put into place accountability and standards in our public schools and I believe this is an important step toward improving our schools." (campaign website) Supports vouchers to allow students to attend the schools of their choice.	Education	"Public education is the foundation of our democracy and opens doors to a better life and a stronger America." (campaign website) Calls the No Child Left Behind law "an unfunded federal mandate" that needs more money from Congress to work. He supports limited "demonstration" voucher programs in inner cities.
"Lawsuit abuse in America is out of control. It's causing health care costs to skyrocket and putting doctors out of business." He believes that he can make a difference on this issue.	Health Care	"I believe we have a moral obligation to make sure that all Americans have quality health care they can afford. My plan would cover every child and lower health care costs for millions of Americans."
"Creating jobs and strengthening the economy is at the top of my agenda. ...I'm committed to streamlining government, reducing red tape and bureaucracy on business, simplifying the tax code, and tackling the tough issue of tort reform and frivolous lawsuits."	Jobs	"One of my highest priorities will be to promote policies that create jobs and economic opportunity. I will work with business and community leaders throughout Colorado to achieve that goal."
"I believe marriage is between a man and a woman. I oppose the activist judges who try to change the traditional definition of marriage." (campaign website)	Marriage	"I believe that marriage is between one man and one woman. I oppose the Federal Marriage Amendment. I support expanding hate crimes laws to include sexual orientation..."
"You can't create jobs, and you can't create real opportunity, by taxing your way to a stronger economy.... I'm a tax cutter and I'm proud of it. I believe that Coloradans know best how to spend their own money."	Taxes	"No one likes paying more taxes, but we must have a fairer tax policy that rewards work, not just wealth. ...Those who suggest we can safely increase spending while we permanently decrease taxes risk crippling the economic future of our nation."
"Our highest priority must be supporting our brave troops in the war against terror. We must stand behind them and give them the tools to get the job done. There is no second place in the war against terror."	Terrorism	"The extermination of international terrorism is our highest national priority. We need to re-gather our friends and allies to this essential international goal, a goal we all share."

Sources: Organizations listed here, Project Vote Smart, campaign websites, Congress.org, Coloradan News, Rocky Mountain News, westword.com

in partnership with our friends
at Faith2Action

Concerned Women for America
1015 Fifteenth St., NW, Suite 1100
Washington, D.C. 20005