

WE DON'T NEED ANOTHER ROE

In 1973, as the nation struggled with the issue of abortion, the Supreme Court robbed the American people of the opportunity for debate in the infamous Roe v. Wade decision. They thought they were "settling" the issue, but after forty years, 55 million babies dead and countless women hurt, the country is still divided, and the majority is waking up to find they were lied to when they were told the baby was "just a blob of tissue."

Today, radicals want the Supreme Court to do the same on the issue of marriage. The nation is forcefully debating the issue, and rightfully so. The re-definition of marriage will have an immense impact on our future, we should debate it thoroughly! But others are set against that. They want the Court to snatch the issue from the public again and silence those with a Biblical view of marriage.

Should 9 people in black robes impose their views on marriage on the entire country?

The answer should be clear, but then again it was clear in the case of Roe also. So let's not take it for granted, come join us as we March for Marriage at the Supreme Court. While the Justices consider the re-definition of marriage on Tuesday, March 26, 2013, we want to send a clear message: NOT ANOTHER ROE!
