

Parent's Awareness Night

October 24th 7p-8:30pm

she's somebody's daughter

Equipping parents to create a safe online experience for kids

presents the Dangers of the Internet and Guidelines to Safe Surfing

Sensible Cyber Parenting presented by

There will also be a FREE Program for children/teens ages 4 & up
provided by: IN THE GAP

Defenders of the Truth: "Learning to Stand for What is Right"

FREE Presentation but seating is limited!

To register:

On facebook search for "Parent's Awareness Night"

Or visit www.shessomebodysdaughter.org for the event link

The program will take place at:

Character Inn Conference Center

520 W Main St Oklahoma City, OK 73102

Parking: Lot west of Conference Center ($6.); Parking Garage, Walker and Sheridan ($5.); or Limited, free street parking

Come away with free Software Information to keep your family safe!!

CONCERNED WOMEN FOR AMERICA

MORALITY IN MEDIA
Making moral choices in the digital world. Upholding values, and our culture by digital first care programs.

IN THE GAP

Kids can browse the Internet in secret.

Fix it with CovenantEyes