

The War On Christians And The Values Voter in 2006

March 27-28, 2006 at the Omni Shoreham Hotel, Washington, DC

- “There is an anti-Christian bias in this country, and it is more on display at Christmas than any other time.” Bill O'Reilly, The O'Reilly Factor
- 59% of Americans believe “Christianity is under attack” in the U.S. today. 11/05, Fox News poll
- “Our government “is moving each day closer to a theocracy, where a narrow and hateful brand of Christian fundamentalism will rule.” full-page ad in The New York Times (12/2/05) signed by Jane Fonda and others
- “Under God” in The Pledge of Allegiance violates a student’s right to be “free from a coercive requirement to affirm God.” U.S. District Judge Lawrence Karlton
- Evangelical Christians are “a clear and present danger to religious liberty in America.” Former Labor Secretary Robert Reich
- Religious people are “moral retards... They are an ugly, violent lot.” Timothy Shortell, professor of sociology, City University of New York.

Christians are under attack -- from Hollywood, the media, activist groups and judges.

Learn about it and how to stop it at The War On Christians Conference.
