

Christmas, 2015

Dear Faithful Friend,

Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year from Concerned Women for America of North Carolina. Although the humanistic world strives to silence the message of God's love and redemption, the light of truth and hope cannot be extinguished. The light of Christ shines for eternity because of the amazing gift we have been given! “For unto us a Child is born; unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” (Isaiah 9:6)

Thank you for joining with CWA of North Carolina in our efforts. Throughout the year, the State Steering Committee and I have been regularly reminded of your faithfulness to defend America's Judeo-Christian heritage and Biblical values in public policy. Thank you for your commitment to pray, your voice for truth, your generosity in both time and resources, and your votes. You have impacted our great state and nation by your service to God, family and country.

Together we fought hard this year, standing for marriage as between one man and one woman, sanctity of life, religious liberty, stopping sexual exploitation, and defending our ally Israel. Some of these battles have been won and all involved an on-going spiritual war between good and evil.

The year ahead will be a challenging one. The political climate is antagonistic and will require your vigilant prayers and actions. Even though times may be changing and seemingly more difficult, the message has not changed and continues to bring life and comfort: “Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel, which is translated, ‘God with us.’” (Matthew 1:23)

In remembrance of terrorists attacks upon innocent lives, and for the families of victims of terrorism throughout the world, please join with us on the fourth Sunday of each month for Concerned Women for America's Love and Prayer>Terror (cwfa.org/prayer-and-love-terror). Pray for terrorists to come to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Join us in the battle ahead by visiting us regularly at nc.cwfa.org for legislative alerts, events, our semiannual News Report and much more. Click here to easily donate online. Be sure to “like” us on Facebook at Concerned Women for America of North Carolina.

We will only see change in America's soul, when Immanuel with God's people, are united in
