

Greater Kansas City Area Director for Concerned Women for America of Missouri, Jill Noble, to speak at the Lebanon Tea Party Group.

Islam and Common Core

The influence of Islam in the Common Core standards is now undeniable

The education system in the United States has come under the influence of radical Islam. Make plans to attend this event to learn more about how to identify the Islamic influence and what you can do to stop it.

Thursday, February 9

5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Lebanon Tea Party Group
650 Mills Road
Lebanon, MO 65536

Bring a friend! Women, men and teens are all welcome and encouraged to attend.

Jill Noble has been an educator for over 28 years. She homeschooled her six children for 16 years and later, taught in the public school classroom. Jill was appointed by Missouri's Lt. Governor to serve on the workgroup to rewrite Missouri Education Standards. Her work on this committee gave her an up-close view of the inner workings of education at the state and federal level. Jill is an expert on the issue of Common Core. She writes and speaks about Common Core, engaging the grass roots to become involved in their local schools. In addition, working alongside legislators, Jill lobbies for changes to the education reforms that plague our schools. She leads women's Bible studies and is an ordained minister.
