

"The Duty of the Jury"

Realizing the Power and Duty of the Modern Jury

two-part DVD lecture series created by the Institute on the Constitution and presented by Concerned Women for America of Missouri

Sunday, February 25

2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

- Lecture 1. The Biblical Foundation of Law
- Lecture 2. Origin and Development of Trial by Jury
- Lecture 3. The American View of Trial by Jury

From the beginning, trial by jury has been a significant part of the American way. The jury was the most democratic of the governmental institutions in the colonies.

The duty of the jury is to judge the law and the facts in order to defend our Constitutional Republic. However, many Americans have been taught that the jury serves a radically different purpose.

Discover the original and true intent of the concept, trial by jury, at this informative event.

Sunday, March 4

2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

- Lecture 4. The History of Jury in dependence.
- Lecture 5. So You've Been Called
- Lecture 6. A Guide for Prospective Juror
