CONCERNED WOMEN FOR AMERICA LEGISLATIVE ACTION COMMITTEE ENDORSES VICKI ROTHMAN FOR SAN DIEGO SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE

San Diego, California -- Today, Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee (CWALAC) endorsed Vicki Rothman for San Diego Superior Court Judge.

Marlo Tucker, State Director for Concerned Women for America of California had this to say, “Vicki Rothman, a social conservative, a strong pro-family, pro-constitutional voice in San Diego County, will uphold the highest standard of the court with integrity and experience.”

Rothman, an attorney, active member of the State Bar of California, the North County Bar Association of San Diego, and the San Diego Family Law Bar Association, states that her duty is to, “uphold the constitution and not legislate from the bench.” She is a true constitutional conservative who understands the proper role of civil government. Rothman believes that, “federal laws are supreme on issues of immigration and national security; issues related to marriage, school choice, right to life should be reserved to the state.”

Penny Nance, CEO and President of Concerned Women for America, said, “We are looking for accomplished citizens, committed to life and family, to be elected to California Courts, people who will rule based on both the federal and state constitutions.”

CWALAC is affiliated with Concerned Women for America, the nation’s largest public policy women’s organization with hundreds of thousands of grassroots participants and with tens of thousands of supporters in California.
