

Make History Through Both Prayer and Action

Support
Judge
Kavanaugh
for U.S.
Supreme Court

It is an exciting time for us as Christians, given the quality of the current nominee to the U.S. Supreme Court, Judge Brett Kavanaugh.

We have a chance to turn the tide of unjust decisions based on judicial activism and protect religious liberty for decades to come.

It is incumbent upon us to make the sacrifices needed today, through both times of prayer and action, to preserve our freedoms for the next generation.

If you keep tabs on the culture, you have noticed a shift with our young people embracing radical socialist ideas with a long history of anti-Christian, tyrannical results. You may have noticed it first with the surprising popularity of socialist Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vermont) in the last presidential election. More recently, you may have heard of the election of another open socialist, Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D-District 14), who ousted 10-term incumbent Rep. Joe Crowley (D-District 14) in New York's 14th Congressional District.

This trend is concerning and shows us we cannot take liberty for granted. We must do the hard work needed to preserve the freedoms that have made America the land of the free. Returning constitutional balance at the U.S. Supreme Court would go a long way in doing that.

Judge Kavanaugh's hearings are scheduled for Sept. 4-7. He would then be voted out of the Judiciary Committee, and sent for a full Senate vote by the end of September.

“We want a Supreme Court that rejects the subjective ‘living, breathing’ constitutional philosophy which judicial activist have used to force liberal political policies on the country under the guise of law. It is time for a Supreme Court that returns power to ‘We the People.’” - Penny Nance, CEO and President of Concerned Women for America

“There are just nine individuals who safeguard our Constitution, the document that has protected our God-given rights for 231 years. There could not be a more qualified candidate to sit on this esteemed bench at this time.” - Mario Diaz, Esq, General Counsel for Concerned Women for America

We must act with a sense of purpose and calling to embrace the opportunity God has given us. It is an exciting time, but it is an incredibly sensitive time, too. We must be strategic and disciplined in our engagement. We must strive to represent God and His principles well in all that we do.

The key to this is PRAYER.

Let us commit to this task most ardently.

- ◆ Please lift the president, the U.S. Senate, and Judge Kavanaugh in prayer every day, in and through the hearings starting on September 4.
- ◆ Pray for wisdom for CWA and others in Washington, D.C., working to confirm Kavanaugh. Pray we would be able to discern beyond what would be apparent to the naked eye. Scripture tells us “The word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it pierces even to dividing of soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart,” (Hebrews 4:12). This is what we need as we navigate the waters of this nomination and work to preserve our constitutional liberties.
- ◆ Pray that the enemy’s plans are frustrated at every turn.

Bottom Line: It is vital we engage in this nomination through both prayer and action. Your senators, no matter their political affiliation, need to hear from you on this issue.

Be “Salt and Light,” act on the facts.

Pray and then contact both your senators. Respectfully encourage them to confirm Judge Kavanaugh to the U.S. Supreme Court. Then, encourage others to do the same. Go to senate.gov/senators/index.htm to find out who your senators are and how to contact them. Sort the list by “State,” click on their name, and then select an option that gives you contact information.
