

A Message From Concerned Women for America

★ Pray.

As a Christian organization, we are first and foremost committed to prayer. As November 6 approaches, will you join us in praying for our state and nation? Please join us by setting a time daily to pray for this next election. Will you do that? Set an alarm on your phone, your computer, put a sticky note on your mirror, whatever works.

★ Encourage.

As a Christian organization, we are committed to encouraging others to vote. Will you join us in this? Encourage friends and family through Facebook, twitter, email, etc. Give rides to those that can not get to a polling place without assistance. Encourage your pastor to mention it from the pulpit.

★ Vote.

As a Christian organization, we see in the Bible that the institution of government was ordained by God (Romans 13:1-4). It is our duty, as citizens and as Christians, to participate in the process by voting.

Vote November 6 as to whether you want mob rule or the rule of law.

Mob Rule or Rule of Law?

We are at a breaking point in history where the rule of law and civil discourse are being threaten by some politicians and radical activists who insist on getting their way, no matter what. Some are inciting that violence be directed at those with whom they disagree.

It is up to you and me to stand up to this mob mentality we saw during the Kavanaugh debacle by praying against malicious tactics and voting November 6.

Don't stay at home and let someone else decide for you.

Find out who is running for office.
Vote for the individual who best supports your values.

These simple steps can have a significant impact on our nation's future.
