Dear Chairman Graham and Ranking Member Feinstein,

On behalf of the thousands of members of Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee (CWALAC), we urge you to confirm William P. Barr to be the next attorney general.

Mr. Barr's professional credentials and vast experience make him a perfect fit for the position. As you know, he already served admirably in that position under the late President George H.W. Bush (1991-1993). His time as deputy attorney general, overseeing the Office of Legal Counsel, and also as an analyst and assistant legislative counsel for the Central Intelligence Agency, will prove invaluable for the challenges that lay ahead.

We sincerely hope today's hyper-partisanship does not turn the nomination or his upcoming hearings into a platform for scoring cheap political points. Mr. Barr deserves to be treated with dignity and respect. The country is in desperate need of his leadership at the Department of Justice. We look forward to a swift consideration and ultimate confirmation.
