

Concerned Women for America of Hawaii to host

This year's theme is Love One Another. National Day of Prayer President, Dr. Ronnie Floyd, said this about this year's theme, "The vast majority of America understands America is broken. And they understand that God is the only one who can fix it. We have an opportunity to create a theme that will engage all Americans. The theme must be biblical, relevant, clear, simple, and understandable. 'Love One Another' accomplishes those five things. From the church house to the state house and all the way to the White House, we need to learn to love one another."

It is time to call down the powers of heaven upon both Hawaii and the nation.

We will be praying for our state, our nation, and our president, Donald J. Trump, along with his cabinet members and White House staff. We will be praying for Gov. David Y. Ige, Lt. Gov. Josh Green, Hawaii Attorney General Clare E. Connors, our state representatives and senators, and our County Mayor Harry Kim.

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
