

Does Scripture Forbid Abortion?

Although there is not a Bible verse saying, “Thou shalt not have an abortion,” having an abortion would be incompatible with the Scriptural explanation of the value of human life, the humanity of the unborn, the beauty of marriage and the body, and the gift of fertility. The content of Scripture offers a perspective that is not just anti-abortion, but truly pro-life.

Let us take a look at just a few examples!

Defend the Value of Life

Proverbs 24:11, James 1:27: We are called to be a voice for the voiceless, to rescue those lead to the slaughter, and to look after orphans and widows in distress.

Proverbs 31:8-9: “Speak up for those who cannot speak up for themselves; ensure justice for those being crushed. Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless and see that they get justice.”

Deuteronomy 30:19b “Now choose life, so that you and your children may live.”

Jeremiah 32:35 and Ezekiel 16: God is dismayed by child sacrifice.

Exodus 20:13: Killing the innocent is forbidden.

Exodus 20:13: Killing the innocent is forbidden.

Humanity of Unborn

Matthew 1:23: Christ Himself came as an unborn child to a poor, single mother, and it was called “being with child”. If we do not show unborn children dignity, than we are denying Christ’s dignity and humanity when He was unborn.

2 Kings 8:12: The Old Testament speaks of a terrible judgement when attacking armies “rip open pregnant women.”

Jeremiah 1:5 Psalm 139:13: God forms the unborn in the womb, knitting them together and creating them.

Genesis 25:27: When Rebekah was pregnant with Jacob and Esau, Scripture says “the babies jostled each other within her.”

Luke 1:41: John, the unborn baby, jumped when he encountered Christ, the unborn baby! Luke 1:15 also makes clear that John was filled with the Holy Spirit from the womb.

Exodus 21:22: There is great penalty in the Old Testament law for even accidentally harming a pregnant women and her baby.

Purpose of Marriage, the Body, and Fertility

Genesis 1:28: We are to be fruitful and increase in number!

Psalms 127:3: Children are a gift from the Lord.

Genesis 1: God makes man in His own image!

We must take seriously the Biblical call not just to recognize unborn life, but to defend it.
