CWALAC Endorses Daniel Gade for U.S. Senate for Virginia

Washington, D.C. -- Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee (CWALAC), the nation's largest public policy women's organization, has endorsed Daniel Gade for U.S. Senate for Virginia.

Penny Nance, CEO and President of CWALAC, said:

"The 2020 election will be a defining moment in American history at the pinnacle of intense political division. The choice before voters is clear: support the bedrock freedoms of our Constitution and conservative values that make America great or threaten our future with a bankrupt leftist agenda that undermines religious freedom, denies life, erases female dignity, and embraces government socialism that will lead to economic and social collapse.

"Conservative women will not concede the fundamental values that strengthen families and promote individual flourishing to the left's destructive agenda. That is why Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee is proud today to endorse Daniel Gade for U.S. Senate for Virginia.

"Daniel Gade is an American war hero who understands first-hand the life-changing cost of protecting America's freedom. Daniel will bring a passionate commitment to preserving our constitutional rights to life and liberty to the U.S. Senate. He will reject the socialist agenda and abortion extremism promoted by Virginia politicians, support constitutionalist judges, and fight for conservative values that promote human flourishing.

"Our members are honored to stand with Daniel Gade in this election, confident that he will stand up for conservative values and American families with courage and integrity."
