

2020 PLATFORM COMPARISON

DEMOCRAT PLATFORM

Commits to the expansion of abortion nationally by repealing the Hyde Amendment which prohibits taxpayer-funded abortion, and internationally, by promising to end the Mexico City Policy which prohibits use of public funds to promote abortion around the world.

Believes a gap in household wealth and income between people of color and white families is hurting our working class and holding our country back. Commits to embed racial justice in every element of their governing agenda.

Commits to guaranteeing transgender students' access to facilities and sports based on their gender identity.

Disagrees with private school vouchers and other policies that divert taxpayer-funded resources away from public schools.

Rejects the use of broad religious exemptions for businesses, medical providers, social service agencies, and others.

Seeks to impose standards for labor, human rights, and the environment in trade agreements.

Believes in appointing federal judges who look like America, seek to redefine individual civil rights, and enforce previous decisions of judicial overreach, including Roe v. Wade.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Stands against the use of public funds to perform or promote abortion nationally and internationally. Resists efforts to increase euthanasia and assisted suicide.

Believes laws and government regulations should actively promote married family life as the basis of a stable and prosperous society.

Believes it would be wrong to redefine sex discrimination to impose a social revolution requiring females to compete in sports and share facilities with men identifying as women.

Commits to provide school choice and excellence in education and freedom for every parent in America.

Fights to defend the religious beliefs and rights of conscience of all Americans and safeguard religious institutions against government control.

Emphasizes American sovereignty. Trade agreements that do not protect U.S. interests, sovereignty or when they are violated with impunity must be rejected.

Believes in appointing federal judges who follow the Constitution, including the unalienable right to life, and do not make activist decisions that undermine constitutional protections, usurp lawmaking authority, and expand power of the judiciary at the expense of the people.
