Talking Points

Use the following talking points when calling the House Financial Services Committee to thank them for their work.

It is normal and preferred for the call to take no more than 1-2 minutes, as congressional staffers are very busy and must answer many calls throughout the day.

You may be asked whose district you are from. Click HERE to learn who your Representative of Congress is if asked.

You may be asked why you are calling—share that you are with Concerned Women for America and reiterate that you support the Committee’s work to combat ESG.

- Hello – my name is _____.
- I am calling to thank the ESG Working Group for protecting our country from harmful ESG policies.
- ESG opens the door to compromising national sovereignty.
- Thank you for your work.
- (if asked) I am from Rep. _____’s district.
- (if asked) I am calling in response to an article from Concerned Women for America and just want to reiterate my thanks for the Committee’s work to combat ESG.
