

CONCERNED
WOMEN for AMERICA
LEGISLATIVE ACTION COMMITTEE

Concerned Women for America Legislative Action Committee identified a series of key Congressional votes for the First Session of the 118th Congress reflecting positions on CWA's core issues and the values of the hundreds of thousands of citizens we represent across the country. This scorecard serves as a measure of a member's stance on critical national issues including the sanctity of life, religious freedom, protections for women, defense of the family, education, and support for Israel. The final cumulative scores provide a clear metric for voters to evaluate their elected officials.

See where your Members of Congress stand on critical issues facing our families, our culture, our freedoms, and our democracy after the first year of the 118th Congress. Listed below are the U.S. House and U.S. Senate members in your state and their overall CWALAC percentage scores from 0 (worst) to 100 (best).

For information on the legislative actions scored, the reason CWALAC scored the vote, and the official roll call of yeas and nays, please click HERE for the House and HERE for the Senate.
